E. SPECIAL DEMONSTRATIONS

Two special demonstrations are scheduled in July which usually claim a great deal of attention: (1) The Cosmetology Demonstration, and (2) Baton Twirlers and Cheerleaders. Both of these activities are quite interesting and entertaining.

F. A SPECIAL WORD OF THANKS

To all employees who contributed to the promotion of our regular and special activities during the month of June. Our 1966 Summer Session is moving along very nicely with good enrollment and a wide variety of offerings for all students.

G. IN CLOSING

The Office of Federal Contract Compliance (replacing The President's Committee on Equal Opportunity) says that Negro Colleges should accept their limitations -- "stop trying to train teachers and social workers and concentrate on turning out technicians."

However Earl J. McGrath, President of the Institute of Higher Education, states that because of economic, social, psychological, and geographic reasons, the predominantly Negro College will continue to be a major avenue to higher education for Negro Youth--for a considerable span of years. improvement in Negro Colleges will help eradicate the handicaps now imposed on Negroes -- and also make the institutions more attractive to white students so that the "Negro Colleges" will eventually cease to exist."

Very truly yours,
